

SQLITE Database Connectivity for LIBPF

the C++ Library for Process Flowsheeting

LIBPF is a tool to rapidly prototype and deploy small-footprint custom applications implementing computations for training, process engineer support, on-line process diagnostic, data reconciliation.

The LIBPF SQLITE product adds to LIBPF CORE desktop and embedded database connectivity through the SQLite database engine.

SQLite

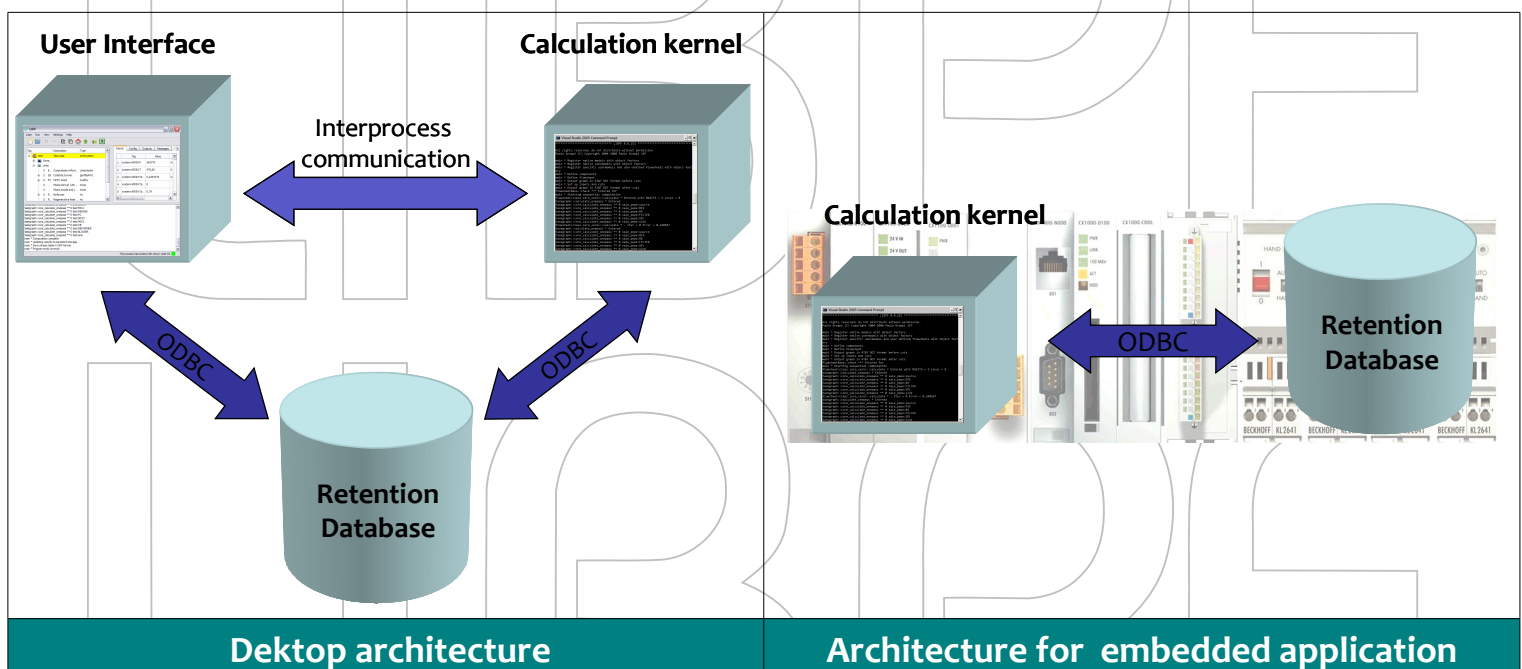

Features

Lightweight and without dependencies

Serverless

Zero-configuration

Suitable for application to embedded systems

For more informations, please visit <http://www.libpf.com> or write to LIBPF-sales@3ip.it